We Are Selling

Our new pattern suits, all the staple dress goods, linings and trimmings at reduced prices. The same thing can be said of the corset stock, all the R & G's and other makes as well as the kid gloves—prices reduced on all of them. Then there's the hosiery department, prices all reduced including the celebrated "Allen" Hose and the "Iron Clad" for children.

The Fine Stock

is booming. All the new black, brown and red Oxford's reduced in price. The same with Crockett's men's shoes and the Little Giant school shoes. We do repairs and half selling the same as the best shoe stores.
Those small sizes in plain toes, lad es shoes at $1 a pair are going fast. Will be glad to show them. We are reducing stock before moving to our new quarters on Commercial street.

of the tall Sycamore Senator of the Wabash, who holds a position at the Klamath Indian agency, is a guest of Col. N. B. Knight of this city.

Walter Tasker, one of the JOUR-NAL'S route carriers, who had his left foot so cruelly crushed by a street car on February 1, is able to be about on crutches, and will soon be able to do without them.

Rev. G. A. Schulte, superintendent of German Baptist missions in the United States and Canada, with his headquarters at New York City, leaves

Los Angeles for his home.

"The Temple of Diana at Ephesus,"

The Willamette University chapel was crowded on Monday evening to hear Prof. F. S. Dunn's lecture on "The Temple of Diana at Ephesus." From first to last the audience was held absorbed, as the professor led them on from legend to fact, and from fact to history. The interest of the audience will be evident when it is stated that a little mouse played about the platform, only frightened now and then by some movement of the speaker.

Asia is the home of the nations and the religions. Hence sprang the population of the globe. In an Asiatic valley, Ephesus lies, the greatest city of Ancient Asia. According to tradition founded by the Amazons of mythology, "The fool saith in his heart, there is no God." Even the savage in nature seeks for a God; every human being has an unaccountable longing for a deity in after existence. This blind groping after truth was the root of the worship at Ephesus.

Diana was goddess of the woods and chase and mighty; the feminine of Janus, God of day and sunshine.

The image of Diana was first of Divine origin and roughly made of wood.
Later it was of ebony and gold, and richly carved.

The great temple at Ephesus resembled the Parthenon at Athens.
It fronted the east like all temples of the ancients, and had 127 columns. It was destroyed by fire seven times, and Alexander the Great offered to rebuild it at his own expense if only his name could be inscribed on it. But the priests of the Ephesians refused the offer. This great temple looked down upon the labors of Paul, but today nothing remains. The Christians in retaliation, destroyed it. Now the wild Arab makes his camp over the ruins. Only the tradition and history of its splendor remains.

The popularity of Prof. Dunn's lectures increases with each succeeding subject that is so intelligently discussed. The seating capacity of the chapel last evening was taxed to its utmost. The only regrets to be expressed are that the lectures are only to be enjoyed fortnightly; a more frequent occurrence would be very agreeable to those who attend regularly.

A BIG IMPROVEMENT.—The old delapidated plank sidewalk in front of D. S. Richard's Junk store on Court street was removed this morning preparatory to constructing a better one.
E. M. Croisan, who owns the property proposes to have a good walk. The large quantity of rubbish which has accumulated for several years is being removed and the improvement will be welcomed by pedestrians.

ON THE RIVER.—The Willamette registered about 13 feet above low water mark this morning and was slowly falling. Business in freight and passenger traffic is reported very light, possibly occasioned by the disagreeable, bad weather of the past four weeks.

NOT ACCEPTED.—The resignation of Hon. Z. F. Moody as member of the state board of agriculture reached the governor today but he is not inclined to accept it, and will probably ask ex-Governor Moody to continue on the board.

You should try Dawson's Bitters.

Proceedings in Probate Court and the Other Departments.

The will of F. B. Mize who died on the 27th inst. has been admitted to probate and the appointment of S. A.
McFadden, as executor of the estate, has been confirmed. The will was executed on the first inst. in the presence of W. H. Byrd and Jesse Macey.
It provides that after the funeral expenses etc. have been paid, that $5 be paid to each of his three sons, Chas.
F. Albert W., and Wm. R. Mize. The remainder of the estate is bequeathed to the nine-year-old daughter of the deceased, Mary Helen Mize, together with a death benefit for $1000 held in the A. O. U. W. The will also provides for the appointment of John Moir as trustee for the daughter, who is to manage and invest her money to her best interests. In case she is married before 21 years of age the property and money is to be turned over to her but in case she should die before attaining the age of 21 years, the estate is to be divided equally between Chas. F. and Albert W. Mize. Jesse Macey, F. B. South-wick and John Chase have been appointed to appraise the estate.

T. R. Hubbard, L. Ames and James Finley, appraisers of the estate of Nicholas Lichty, deceased, have filed their inventory with the probate court. It shows the personal property to be valued at $88 while 64 acres of land is estimated at $1200.

The value of the estate of Geo. W.
Stephens, deceased, is $8,000 according to the inventory recently filed by the appraisers, G. W. Hunsaker, Harry Pearson and F. M. Cook Sr.

County Clerk L. V. Ehlen today issued a marriage license to Frank M.
Jorday and Ada M. Hildon.

County Treasurer and Mrs. G. I.
Brown are visiting relatives in Sta-yton.

Musical Entertainment.

When it comes to providing for the pleasant entertainment of an audience, the Salem Rebekah Lodge No.
1, I. O. O. F. cannot be surpassed.
Monday evening following a short business session the members of the lodge accompanied by their families repaired to the library. It was truly a "musical evening" from the fact that everything that was done had connection with or suggested music. Each person wore some article that suggested the name of some selection of music which was ascertained by guessing, each person keeping a list of the same. The hearing and ability to remember music was then tested. A young lady played a measure from a large number of selections the audience to guess the selection from which the measure was taken. A score of articles was then brought into the room, representing some figure in music.
The party then submitted the results of their guesses to a committee who determined upon best guesses to whom seven prizes were awarded.

Some of the "make ups" were very good a few of which will be mentioned: A young gentleman carried a revolver in a very conspicuous place which of course referred to that well known song, "Johnny Get Your Gun." A young lady had a paper doll pinned on her back which nearly every one guessed as the "Girl I Left Behind Me". Another young man carried a large sword which was no doubt "The Sword of Bunker Hill." These are only a few of the many unique representations. While the committee was determining the winners of the prizes the following musical program was rendered:

Violin Solo.....Miss Bessie Collison
Vocal Solo.....Miss Georgia Davenport Song.....Three Little Girls
Music.....Lon Wain
A Musical Trio.....Misses Lena Hutton, Bessie Collison and
.....Mr. Lon Wain

The occasion was indeed a delightful affair and the entertainment of the guests was complete.

Mrs. West's FUNERAL.—The funeral of Mrs. J. W. West, who died early Monday morning, was held from the East Salem Central Chapel on Nineteenth street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The services were very largely attended; conspicuous among the audience were about 50 representatives of the Salem Grove No. 3, Woodmen Circle, of which order the deceased was an esteemed member.
The services were conducted by Rev.
Bauchamp and Rev. P. S. Knight, and the remains were interred in City View cemetery.

MILLS SOLD.—The Dixie Mills were sold under foreclosure proceedings Monday by Sheriff Plummer. The property cost its first owners about $10,000 but was bid in by Jim Cooper for the First National bank of Dallas for $10,000. These mills are valuable property, nearly as good as the big brick mills at Salem.

THE WEATHER.—It is more spring-like and the forecast for Wednesday is fair and warmer.

MESSAGE.

To the Last Legislature—Nit.

The Document from Gov. Lord First Made Public.

The biennial message of Governor Wm. P. Lord to the legislature that never met and organized is now for the first time made public. Following is a brief digest:

THE MESSAGE.

Opens with a homily on the duties of lawmakers in general and in eulogy of the state in particular concluding: You owe the people conscientious performance of duty according to your best ability. I pray that you may not disappoint these just expectations.

The message then demands more equal assessment and valuation of property for purposes of taxation.

SOME POINTS IN THE MESSAGE.

The penitentiary is badly located, badly sewer and poorly constructed.
The state insane asylum receives intelligent and critical attention.

That the state accept the orphan's home at Salem.

That the state return money for state lands to which it cannot give title.

That the state school land board does not possess the "business sense and judgment especially required in making loans."

The fisheries, national guard other state institutions, horticulture and forestry receive special attention.

More space is given to education than any one other subject.

ABOLISH BOARDS.

"The offices of food and dairy commissioner and veterinary surgeon should be consolidated into one office under the latter, at his present salary, and the domestic animal commission should be abolished. This would secure a better service and effect a saving alone of $2,000 a year.
Nor is there any need of a railroad commission, composed of three members. One commissioner, with a clerk, is enough, if the office is of any public benefit. In any event, either abolish the commission, or cut its number down to one. There is, too, the board of equalization, which is composed of excellent men, desirous of serving the interests that were the object of its creation; but it is greatly doubted whether the board is rendering a useful service, and its abolition is not desirable."

The governor scores the custom of legislative visiting committees to merely whitewash as follows:

"I assert that they stand in no dread of you or your power to investigate the truth, and I say that they despise, as every honest man should despise, the perfunctory or fixed committee, constituted to gloss ugly facts and manufacture fraudulent reputations for dishonest, worthless, or incompetent officials."

The message scores nearly every department of the state service in some way, even the executive department, and is a "reform" document.

THE CONCLUSION.

"We owe the people a conscientious performance of duty and must fulfill our obligations. We can not over-estimate the responsibility of our positions. Our oaths will not rest lightly on our con-sciences if we neglect our duty and abuse our trust. We are brought together under circumstances that emphasize the necessity of a redemption of pledges. Animated by a high sense of duty and unselfish loyalty, let us strive to discharge our public duties in a way that shall meet the approbation of Him who is the giver of all good, that shall maintain the best interests of the people and contribute to their happiness and advancement, and that shall add to the glory and redound to the honor of our beloved state."

WM. P. LORD,
Governor.

TRAMPS.

Coming to Be a Nuisance in One Part of the City.

Yew Park people complain of the number of tramps in that part of the city. For a few days past they have been especially numerous. Ten or fifteen have been kept about the Southern Pacific depot for several days.

They have erected sheds out of old railroad ties, open at one side, where they build a fire. They were also represented at the state house, last night, where quite a delegation may have slept, as they were observed crawling out of a basement window, having kept comfortable near the heating apparatus.

A lot of carpenter tools were taken last night from W. H. Phillips's barn and found today at the second hand store near THE JOURNAL office. The long cold spell during March has increased the number of tramps and the delightful suburban environments of Yew Park seem to be peculiarly attractive to them.

MEETING OF PRESBYTERIANS.

Trustee and Elders Elected.—Salary of Pastor is Reduced.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church held its annual meeting in the lecture room of the church last evening, at which reports were submitted from the different church organizations. The reports showed good work done by the different church societies, though the financial receipts like all other organizations show the effect of the prevailing hard times, and the trustee's estimates of receipts and expenditures for the ensuing year showed a necessity for retrenchment, and it was accordingly voted to make the salary of the pastor $1000 instead of $1200.

One trustee and two new members of the session were elected. The boards of trustees and elders who will have charge of the financial and spiritual affairs of the church for the ensuing year are constituted as follows: Trustees—Dr. W. S. Jeffries, S. P.
Kimball, P. H. Raymond, John Moir, and A. O. Condit. Elders: H. V.
Mathews, John Moir, G. A. Rockwell, P. H. Raymond, T. G. Albera, James Martin, E. T. Albert, John A. Van-Eaton and C. S. Purdy. A vote was had on providing for pulp supply for the ensuing year, and a motion to authorize the session to reengage Rev. W. Steel on same terms as last year was lost by a small majority, quite a number voting against the motion on account of the previous action taken in reducing the salary.

MARRIED.

RISDON—JORDAN.—At the residence of Mrs. R. Edes on south High street, Tuesday, March 30, 1896, Miss Ada Risdon, to Mr. Frank M. Jordan, both of Seattle, Rev. W.
C. Kantner, of the First Congregational church officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan left via the afternoon train for Seattle where they will reside.

EXAMINATION TODAY.—The first prisoner to have an examination in municipal court since Recorder Edes has removed into his new quarters at the city hall, will be Frank Starr, who was arrested Sunday afternoon while in an intoxicated condition, on the charge of larceny from a dwelling.
His preliminary examination was set for 4 p. m. today.
